

Est. 1986

Inform Nutrition is Ireland's leading Animal Nutrition company. Established in 1986, the ongoing success of Inform Nutrition has been based on innovation and manufacturing the highest quality products.

Our two manufacturing facilities in Cork operate under GMP+ to ensure the highest quality standards and full traceability for our products in Ireland and exported to over 60 countries worldwide.

Role: COMMERCIAL NUTRITIONIST Northern Ireland and the border counties

Key Responsibilities:

- Growth and development of Feed Mill and Pig business
- Developing sales of premix and innovative products to existing and new customers
- To help develop new products in conjunction with the technical team
- Identify, build and maintain relationships with key sector leaders
- Organise and collate trial data

Education & Experience Requirements:

- Agricultural / Science degree (research background)
- Previous commercial nutritionist experience and a network in the industry a distinct advantage
- Experience working in a technically sales focused organization

Skills/ Aptitudes:

- Ability to analyse nutritional problems and propose effective, practical solutions
- Identify and plan improvements for our customers
- Self-motivated, self-starter, determined and able to work on own initiative
- High levels of integrity and trust as a representative of Inform Nutrition Ireland

Applicant should write enclosing a detailed CV to:

Keith Chambers, Commercial Manager,
Inform Nutrition Ireland, Whitescross,
Cork, Ireland.

keith@informnutrition.com

Closing date for applications 26th October 2018